

Join Our Traineeship Program

The Traineeship Program at REVOLVE is an exciting opportunity for higher education students to gain professional experience and valuable skills to jump-start their careers. REVOLVE offers full immersion in the Departments of our respective offices in Brussels and Barcelona. Once accepted to the Program, REVOLVE provides clear tasks, assignments, and deadlines that are followed by a mentor within the Department. Trainees are encouraged to give video statements at the end of their time at REVOLVE describing the valuable experience of what they learned. REVOLVE also provides Recommendation Letters upon demand and invites all Trainees to join the REVOLVE Alumni Group.

REVOLVE accepts trainee candidates who are passionate about sustainability, motivated to enhance their skills, and excited about learning.

Your Traineeship:

The EDITORIAL team at REVOLVE provides a space for trainees to gain skills in editing, proof-reading, and writing content about the 5 themes of sustainability that we cover. REVOLVE produces Opinions, Features, Interviews, and VIEWS (photo essays) – the best of which goes into our award-winning quarterly magazine. You too can be published at REVOLVE!

Your Tasks:

You will be assigned a mentor at the beginning of your Traineeship to deliver the following tasks:

- Set a realistic content plan for the pieces you want to develop during your Traineeship.
- Pursue a weekly plan for drafting and delivering your pieces on time.
- Work with Project Managers and designers to ensure content is consistent, informative, and appealing
- Schedule, post and engage on Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn, Instagram and, Youtube.
- Monitor the most important digital and social media KPIs to monitor activities and campaigns
